Meest

GOODS PROHIBITED FOR SENDING

List of goods prohibited for sending in international postal items:

Military equipment, firearms and their ammunition, melee weapons and other items specially designed for attack and defense (knives, knuckledusters, stilettos, canisters with paralytic liquid, etc.)

Objects that constitute the national, historical or cultural heritage of the Uzbek people, defined in accordance with the laws of Uzbekistan

Permits for the right to carry weapons, employment records, military tickets

Compressed gases, aerosols, explosive, flammable, toxic, oxidizing, aggressive or other dangerous substances (deodorants, ammunition, fireworks, fuel, gasoline, bleaches, detergents, perfumes, pesticides, glues, manicure varnishes)

Counterfeit goods or any goods exported in violation of intellectual property rights

Goods that have signs of a commercial batch (a significant number of similar attachments)

Agricultural products and food products (including canned ones)

Narcotic drugs, psychotropic substances and their analogues

Cigarettes, cigars and other tobacco products, smoking devices of all types

Objects of obscene and immoral content

Alcoholic drinks and other products containing alcohol

Bank cards, money, products made of gold, silver and precious metals

Food products of animal origin

Medicines, vitamins and vitamin complexes, nutritional supplements

Seeds and planting material

Lighters, solid flammable substances (matches, incense, etc.)

Batteries / accumulators and devices containing batteries

Magnets

Radioactive substances

In Europe, it is allowed to send food products of long-term storage in factory packaging (except for products of animal origin), while the total weight of different types of food products cannot exceed 10 kg in one IPI.

In Canada, it is allowed to send candies, chocolate, tea and coffee only in factory packaging with a total weight of up to 2 kg in one IPI.

In the USA, it is prohibited to send any food products.

uz.meest.com